

CONDITIONS OF SUPPLY FOR CENSUS INFORMATION

Copies of Census related products and services, hereafter described as the products, are supplied by the Census organisations subject to the following general conditions:

The information in the products remains Crown copyright

The recipient may use the products for any purpose, but not on an internal electronic network or intranet without first obtaining a click-use licence from Her Majesty's Stationery Office (HMSO). A click-use licence is also required before publishing the product either in whole or in part.

For more information or to obtain a click-use licence you should visit HMSO's Website:

<http://www.hmso.gov.uk/click-use-home.htm>. People who do not have access to the World Wide Web should contact: HMSO, The Licensing Division, St Clements House, 2-16 Colegate, Norwich NR3 1BQ or telephone 01603 621000.

Clauses in this "Condition of supply" should be included in any end user licence, which sets out the terms under which users/subscribers may access the content of such products and publications, as specified in clause 6.2 of the click-use licence.

The source of the product should be prominently displayed on all products produced that contain Census information, e.g.

"Source: 1991 Census, Small Area Statistics"

Census products incorporate safeguards against possible identification of any particular person or household. The purchaser shall not use products to attempt to obtain or derive information relating specifically to an identified person or household, nor claim to have obtained or derived such information.

The Census organisations will replace, free of charge, any medium on which the abstracts are supplied which is not in accordance with the specification given by the Census organisation, provided that the Census organisation is informed within a three month period following receipt of the abstracts. The Census organisation will not accept any responsibility for any loss or expense incurred consequent on the supply of faulty material or on inaccuracies in the information in the abstracts or on the physical condition of any medium on which the abstracts are supplied.

The Census organisations use anti-virus software to safeguard against any viruses being included in the original material, but do not accept liability for any loss or damage arising from any virus present in the material.

Cancellation of an order for any abstracts shall make the customer liable to pay any costs incurred by the Census organisations up until the time of cancellation.

I accept the conditions of supply stated above.

Signed Date

Name Company Name

.....

(Please print)(If applicable)